

SOCIETY

CALENDAR.

Mrs. Jeremiah Beattie and her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Johnson, will entertain at a bridge tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Beattie.

Mrs. Oscar Cox will entertain at an informal luncheon at her home today, for Miss Helen Robertson of Colorado, who is visiting here.

Miss Gertrude McGrath will entertain eight at a luncheon at her home today in honor of Mrs. Daugherty of Portland.

Miss Ruth Brubaker will entertain at cards this afternoon in her apartments in the Sampson flats.

The American Music society will meet this evening with Mrs. Charles Reed at her home on Second avenue.

The Sewing club will meet this afternoon with Miss Mamie Sappington.

The Ladies of the First Methodist church will entertain at a "swap party" this evening at 8 o'clock in the parlors of the church. A musical programme will follow.

Mrs. H. N. Mayo will entertain at a bridge tea for her guest, Mrs. Nelson Story, Jr., on Friday, July 3.

Mrs. F. E. McGurkin entertained fourteen tables at a bridge tea at the Country club Thursday afternoon. The broad verandas and reception rooms were prettily decorated in yellow and white.

On the walls were many Indian baskets containing wild mustard and white daisies. Vases were placed on the mantle. The dining room was adorned with red roses, a large mound of the flowers being in the center of the table. Mrs. F. S. Bacon presided, assisted by Miss Edna Bailey, Miss Mary Smiley and Miss Gertrude Hanson. The prizes were won by Mrs. James Jennings, Mrs. H. Vance Lane, Mrs. Ira Tuttle, Mrs. F. S. Bacon, Mrs. J. J. Campbell, Mrs. James Ivers, Mrs. Grigley of New York, Mrs. A. Fred Wey, Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. L. T. Terry, Mrs. J. H. Johnson, Mrs. Union Worthington and Mrs. George C. Moore.

Miss Betta Pyper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Pyper, was married to Harry Shepherd Thursday morning in the temple. A reception to the family and intimate friends followed at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride. Miss Pyper wore a dainty gown of white with silk and carried white roses. Her only attendant was Mrs. Sidney Saxillo, a matron of honor, who wore a pale blue silk and carried pink sweet peas. George W. Pyper, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses, the dining room with pink and white, and Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd will be at home after July 15 at 123 Fourth avenue.

Miss Ethel Druce and Will Leaver were married at 7 o'clock Thursday evening at the home of the bride by Bishop Whitney. Only the families were present at the ceremony. A reception followed. The bride wore a white primrose gown and carried white roses. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses and palms. After July 1 Mr. and Mrs. Leaver will be at home at 516 East First south, with Mrs. Leaver's mother. They will remain there until September 1, when they will be at home at 108 U street.

Miss Edora Daly entertained five tables at a bridge tea at her home Thursday afternoon. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white carnations, the dining room with pink and white sweet peas, a large mound of the flowers forming the centerpiece. Miss Daly was assisted by Mrs. J. C. Daly and Miss Selma Wall. Prizes were won at each table by Miss Julia Cullen, Miss Winifred Lynn, Miss Mamie Sappington, Miss Carrie Sappington and Miss Ruby Lambourne.

Miss Lucile Clark entertained twenty at a five hundred party and tea Thursday afternoon in honor of the Misses Bryan and Grizzelle Houston, who have recently returned from New York. The rooms were prettily decorated with white and green, ferns and white carnations being used. Prizes were won by Miss Norrine Thompson and Miss Margaret Dunn.

A wedding this evening will be that of Miss Anna Marie Weaver and the Rev. Charles Lester Greasy, of Dilly, Ore. The ceremony will be performed at 8:30 o'clock in the presence of relatives and a few close friends. The Rev. F. S. Short will officiate. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Lulu Weaver, and H. C. Weaver, a brother, will act as best man.

Miss Belva Fisher and J. L. Reynolds were married in the temple Thursday morning. A reception followed from 7 to 11 o'clock. The bride wore a white gown of white silk mulle and carried white roses. Her only attendant was Miss Afton Paul. After June 27 Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will be at home in the Plaza flats.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. MacLean entertained eight tables at five hundred Thursday evening at their home, which was prettily decorated in roses, the parlors and library with pink and the dining room with American beauties. Their two little daughters, Mildred and Lucile, assisted.

Miss Althea Wheeler and her pupils of the cooking department of the University entertained eight at a prettily appointed luncheon Thursday, in honor of Professor Henry Suzzallo. The table was effectively decorated with roses. The place cards were girl heads.

Mrs. George R. Hancock and her son, John, will return from the East the first week in July. Mrs. Hancock attended the Woman's Federation of Clubs in Boston after the graduating exercises of her son at Laurenceville, N. J.

The Misses Rae and Olive Bartch entertained twelve at a prettily appointed luncheon at their home Thursday, in honor of Mrs. B. M. White, of Colorado, who is visiting here. A large mound of pink roses formed the table centerpiece.

Miss Pearl Weiler entertained twelve at a prettily appointed luncheon at her home Thursday, in honor of Mrs. B. M. White, of Colorado, who is visiting here. A large mound of pink roses formed the table centerpiece.

Miss Hazel Gardner, daughter of Mrs. Joseph S. Gardner of West Jordan, was married to Frank W. Richardson, of West Jordan, Thursday, June 18, at the home of the bride. A reception followed.

Mrs. Charles S. Morrison, who has been visiting friends here, and her parents at Wood's Cross, will leave the first of the week for her home in Colorado Springs.

Mrs. C. C. Slade and little daughter, Katherine, will leave Saturday for the East, where they will spend a month with Mrs. Slade's mother, in New Jersey.

Mrs. W. H. Colt and two sons, Webster and Calvin, left Thursday for Chicago, where they will spend the summer with Mrs. Colt's mother.

Mrs. W. H. Kervin and daughter, Miss Hope, of Reno, Nev., are the guests of Mrs. R. C. Cosgriff. Miss Mary Kervin will arrive later.

On June 24, three Salt Lake graduates from Yale, Roger Sherman and Harold Ross Brown, and James Carpenter, a former resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. McGurkin will leave next week for Portland and Seattle. They probably will go to Alaska before returning.

Henry McCormick entertained a few friends at an informal dinner at the Country club Thursday evening. Dancing followed.

Mrs. B. M. White, who has spent several weeks here with friends, will leave Saturday for her home in Eagle, Colo.

Mrs. Mary Ryan is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. F. B. Robinson and the Misses Francke, 79 C street.

Mrs. S. S. Dickinson entertained at a dinner Thursday for Mrs. B. F. Nevins, of San Jose.

Miss Marion Hall, of Los Angeles, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cosgriff for a week or two.

My Dear Mr. Luke: I wish to acknowledge receipt of your check for $50.00 in settlement of Bird collection. It certainly made me feel good to get that money. There is a whole lot of satisfaction to me outside of the money side to know that an unprincipled scoundrel is caught in such a fix some time that he is forced to pay his honest obligations.

Well! I will take my hat off to you in this case and wish you the best of luck.
Yours very truly,
FRANK E. CAFFEY,
Manager.

We will collect some for you if you turn in your claims. This one came in by telephone.
